Declarant and each Unit Owner acknowledge that the provisions set forth in this Article 14 shall be binding upon current and future Unit Owners of the Condominium and upon the Association, whether acting for itself or on behalf of any Unit Owner(s). Nothing in these Articles or in any other Condominium Document is intended to limit, expand or otherwise modify the terms of any limited warranty provided by Declarant to a Unit Owner pursuant to a purchase agreement.

14.2 Notice. Any Person (including, without limitation, the Association) with a Dispute claim shall notify the Declarant in writing of the claim, which writing shall describe the nature of the claim and any proposed remedy (the "Claim Notice").

The mediator is authorized to conduct joint and separate meetings with the parties and to make oral and written recommendations for settlement. Whenever necessary, the mediator may also obtain expert advice concerning technical aspects of the Dispute, provided the parties agree and assume the expenses of obtaining such advice. The mediator does not have the authority to impose a settlement on the parties.

14.5.3 Exclusion Agreement. Any admissions, offers of compromise or settlement negotiations or communications at the mediation shall be excluded in any subsequent dispute resolution forum.

14.5.4 Parties Permitted at Sessions. Confidential information disclosed to a mediator by the parties or by witnesses in the course of the mediation shall be confidential. There shall be no stenographic record of the mediation process.

All other expenses of the mediation, including, but not limited to, the fees and costs charged by the mediator and the expenses of any witnesses or the cost of any proof or expert advice produced at the direct request of the mediator, shall be borne equally by the parties unless they agree otherwise. Each party to the mediation shall bear its own attorneys' fees and costs in connection with such mediation.

The parties shall cooperate in good faith to attempt to cause all necessary and appropriate parties to be included in the arbitration proceeding. Subcontractors, material suppliers and other parties whose participation is reasonably necessary to afford complete relief in arbitration or who are involved in common questions of law or fact shall be included as parties in the arbitration. The arbitrator shall oversee discovery and may enforce all discovery orders in the same manner as any trial court judge.

14.6.6 Motions. The arbitrator shall have the power to hear and dispose of motions, including motions to dismiss, motions for judgment on the pleadings and summary judgment motions, in the same manner as a trial court judge, except the arbitrator shall also have the power to adjudicate summary issues of fact or law including the availability of remedies, whether or not the issue adjudicated could dispose of an entire cause of action or defense.

14.6.7 Arbitration Award. The arbitrator's award may be enforced as provided for in the Uniform Arbitration Act, A.R.S. § 12-1501, et seq., or such similar law governing enforcement of awards in a trial court as is applicable in the jurisdiction in which the arbitration is held, or as applicable, pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act (Title 9 of the United States Code).
